Located in a residential area of Lisbon, the Pestana Palace Lisboa is a 5 star hotel integrated in a palace of the 19th century which, along with its gardens, was classified as a “National Monument”.

Of the building's 194 rooms – 4 of which are Royal Suites – all are rich in decorative details influenced by the French style. The private rooms of the Marquis have been transformed into spacious suites, with artworks decorating the walls, complemented by elegant antique furniture and luxurious sofas. The views onto the Tagus river or the extensive palace gardens are a constant feature in all Royal Suites.

In the interiors, guests may enjoy unique meals in the award-winning Valle Flôr restaurant and relax both body and mind at the renovated Magic Spa.

The Pestana Palace Lisboa Hotel is a member of “The Leading Hotels of the World”, a distinction that places the hotel among the most luxurious and exquisite in the world.

A photograph of a grand, ornate dining room. The room features extensive dark wood paneling on the walls and ceiling, with intricate carvings and decorative elements. The walls are covered in yellow floral wallpaper. A long dining table with a white tablecloth and a red skirt is set with plates, glasses, and a centerpiece. The table is surrounded by dark wood chairs with red upholstered seats. A large, ornate chandelier hangs from the ceiling. The floor is made of light-colored wood with a geometric pattern. The room is filled with light, creating a warm and elegant atmosphere.

Renascença Room

The exotic wood presented at Renascença room belonged to a boat that came from São Tomé and Príncipe, under Marquis of Valle Flôr instructions.

IN

tree species from
São Tomé and Príncipe

VALLE FLÔR RESTAURANT

In the ancient ballrooms of Pestana Palace Lisboa Hotel, there is a magical space where the lavishing golden columns and chapters evoke Versailles and where you can experience a new level of Portuguese cuisine: one that breathes a palace's inspiration and a French rigor.

In the Valle-Flôr restaurant, your breakfasts and dinners will stay in the memory of all your sense; not just the palate.

The Regency style multiplies the feeling of luxury and wellness, contrasting golden tones with the fresh green and blue tones of the decor and the wrought iron of the huge luminous windows.

OUT

The Pestana Palace Lisboa Hotel is located close to Belém, near the city's main monuments and cultural attractions, such as the Padrão dos Descobrimentos (Monument to the Discoveries), the Jerónimos Monastery, the Congress Centre and the Belém Cultural Center (CCB).

The view of the Tagus River is enough to make anyone become passionate about this city born at the waterfront. But Lisbon's history, its present and future offer much more to see. With its yearlong blue sky, a mild winter and very beautiful beaches, Lisbon is at the top of all lists of Europe's most interesting cities.

TO DO

THE CHARM OF THE CHIADO

Frequented by artists and intellectuals - the Faculty of Fine Arts lies here - , the Chiado was the preferred spot of the poet Fernando Pessoa. Visitors should not miss taking a coffee (uma bica) on the esplanade of A Brasileira, where the poet has been immortalized by a statue. From the Rua do Carmo to the Praça Camões, the streets are full of bookstores, coffee bars, restaurants, museums, theatres and boutiques. Close to this quarter is the Bairro Alto.

With this heterogeneity of visitors and so much to discover, the Chiado presents itself as Lisbon's true heart. Take the chance to travel in the typical 28 tramway from the Graça to the Campo de Ourique parishes, crossing the Praça Camões, and completing a trip full of history through the city's main points of interest, like the Feira da Ladra, the São Jorge Castle, the Cathedral, the Baixa Pombalina, the Basílica da Estrela and Fernando Pessoa House.

OUT

TO DO FROM THE AVENIDA TO THE TERREIRO DO PAÇO

Reserve an afternoon to walk around the long Avenida da Liberdade and take in the glamour of the boutiques and the fresh terraces. Continue until the Praça de Rossio (the square with the imposing National Theatre) and enter the downtown streets, where you will find many stores and much animation, ending at the Terreiro do Paço, close to the Tagus River.

TYPICAL QUARTERS

Alfama is the right place to sense the nostalgia of the fado. It is also the oldest district that resisted to the large earthquake of 1755.

Bairro Alto is one of the most famous quarters in the Portuguese capital, being like a stage for one to see the Bohemian lifestyle and the nightlife, characterized by its atmosphere and the fusion of its picturesque streets and taverns and the fashion of its bars and stores of the major alternative brands.

You should also visit the Bairro da Bica, which is one of the most authentic districts in town, and for this reason, one of the most crowded during the festivities dedicated to the popular saints.

TO SEE

Among lifts and sightseeing points, there is a varied choice in the City of the Seven Hills. There are many and different views in this city. Lisbon is blessed by a unique light offered on luminous days, sunsets of all colors and an ever-charming nighttime glow. Should you be searching for another perspective, we suggest a visit to the Cristo-Rei Sanctuary, on the south bank of the Tagus River, from where you can enjoy what is undoubtedly one of the best panoramic views.

The Parque das Nações is the most modern part of the town. It was constructed with superb architecture for the World Fair of 1998. The Expo 98 area, as it is known, gathers innumerable attractions, ranging from an exhibition centre to the largest pavilion for shows in Portugal, an area with bars, a modern shopping mall and the Oceanário de Lisboa, the second largest aquarium in the world.

OUT

Lisbon, as the capital town of the country, presents a gastronomic offer full of variety, from regional dishes to haute cuisine both national and international.

Visitors will find endless different venues and atmospheres: irresistible bakeries and the outdoor cafés where the inhabitants of Lisbon enjoy their typical coffee called “bica”, the traditional “tascas” (small taverns) for snacks such as codfish puffs accompanied with a glass of wine or a beer, or the premises where, after an intense night, visitors may find comfort for their souls with a “caldo verde” (green cabbage soup) and bread with artisanal chouriço sausage.

Codfish and the Portuguese-style stew are the national dishes, which elaboration varies slightly from one region to the other, but that are always present on the menu card.

OUT

TO EAT

In a nation always linked to the sea, other Lisbon specialities include seafood and fresh fishes. During the summer, especially during the festivities honoring the Patron Saints (city festivals honoring “Saint Anthony of Lisbon”), the smell of the grilled sardines spreads over Lisbon’s neighborhoods, that it even became an icon to the city, present in innumerable souvenirs.

The Ginjinha do Rossio is a must for every visitor and the custard pies are the most famous of Portuguese sweets. Although many bakeries and cafes have their own recipe, the original one is a secret of the Fábrica de Pastéis of Belém, where the custard tarts are eaten still warm and powdered with sugar and cinnamon.
