RIXOS GUIDE TO RAMADAN

ETIQUETTE DURING THE HOLY MONTH OF RAMADAN

- Feel free to greet people with the term "Ramadan Kareem" during this month
- Before the hours of sunset, please refrain from eating, drinking, smoking, chewing gum in public areas
- Please ensure that you dress appropriately throughout the holy month by keeping your shoulders covered and by avoiding clothes deemed as tight or revealing
- Avoid playing loud music or singing and dancing in public as this can be offensive to other guests and members of the public
- Ensure that you drink plenty of water when in private to remain hydrated when you are in public during the day
- It is always a nice experience to take part in an iftar, a suhoor or in other cultural celebration during Ramadan
- Refrain from swearing or engaging in confrontations or arguments – the holy month of Ramadan is all about peace and serenity

THINGS TO DO IN DUBAI

- Take a seaplane tour around Dubai with Seawings and enjoy breathtaking views of the Palm Jumeirah, the World Islands and Dubai's iconic skyline
- Cool down in the sea with a wide selection of motorised and non-motorised watersports - brought to you by Water Adventure Dubai
- Really cool down with a trip to Ski Dubai in the Mall of the Emirates and mingle with penguins or learn to ski - in the middle of the desert
- Visit one of Dubai's famous malls and take advantage of the quiet day time to splurge on a range of items available under one roof
- Learn all about the heritage of Dubai with a visit to the Sheikh Mohammed Centre for Cultural Understanding
