THE AFRICA HOUSE HOTEL

A palace turned into historically popular hotel has recently been the subject of total refurbishment with focus on restoration thereof to its original glory. THE HOTEL, well known for its fine character and history offers 15 rooms full of its former traditional splendor with as many traditional and antique pieces of furniture as possible.

The hotel is also well known and popular for its culinary delicacies and probably the finest of the dining experience after viewing the best of sunset in the Island from its Sun Deck. Facing the blue waters of Indian Ocean and located in UNESCO heritage site of buoyant Stone Town, the hotel also boasts of the oldest library in Africa with books dating back 18th and 19th centuries.

ACCOMMODATION

A Colonial classic, the Africa House was formerly the English Club and now has 15 rooms furnished with red-and-gold Shirazi sofas, gilt-framed mirrors and swagged curtains. There's also a perennially popular sunset bar, although the restaurant serves rather mediocre fare. Downstairs rooms overlook the road..

RESTAURANT

The main focus of the Africa House Hotel is the Sun set Bar & Restaurant, which sits on a large open air terrace overlooking the sea, and is a very popular spot for a sundowner, it is a good place to grab a bite to eat for lunch & dinner with some house made cocktails & mock tails . The restaurant too, has a panoramic view over the sea, and silver service, which we believe is unique in Stone Town.
