Check-in at the hotel takes place right at the villa, where guests are greeted with flowers, champagne, chocolate, fruit and refreshing towels. It is possible to provide a personal chef to Residence if guests want to relax in conditions of maximum privacy.

BELEK DESTINATION

The small, upscale resort-town of Belek is more than just one of the most popular holiday centres on the Turkish Riviera, it has also earned a place among the world's top tourism destinations. Located 40 km from Antalya, Belek is easily accessible to both domestic and international travellers. With seventeen kilometres of gorgeous sandy beaches and several magnificent archaeological sites in the vicinity there is something for everyone. Blessed with fertile soil and an abundance of freshwater, the region has seen many civilisations come and go in its long history. Although Belek has a typical Mediterranean climate, the crystal-clear streams that flow from the slopes of the Taurus Mountains carry the scent of pines to the coast and create a unique and different microclimate. With so much going for it, no wonder Belek has emerged as a top location for visitors looking for a superb Mediterranean holiday as well as for golfers seeking a perfect golf holiday.
