Get to know your hotel and your destination

This beachfront hotel in Puerto de la Cruz comes with camera-worthy views – you’ve got panoramas of Mount Teide on one side, and the ocean on the other.

The Bahia Principe Sunlight San Felipe is a great choice for all types of people. While children enjoy the Kids’ club, mums and dads can catch a break in the spa. There’s a hotel-run kids’ club where arts, crafts and mini-discos are on the cards. Mums and dads, meanwhile, can catch a break in the spa.

On the pool front, you’ve got two to choose from. One’s a big heated number with sea views, while the other’s tucked away inside. And when it comes to mealtimes, there are four restaurants to swing between.

Puerto de la Cruz sits on Tenerife’s north coast, amid a landscape of tropical fruit plantations. There’s a traditional feel to the place, with its quaint harbour and pretty old town, but it does sophistication well, too. Nouveau cuisine’s served in Colonial-style restaurants, while the bars mix cocktails with singers from across the Canary Islands. As for the coastal scene, you’ve got a duo of architect-designed beaches to enjoy.
