DIVE & SAIL

Vaavu Atoll is without a doubt one of the most unique atolls in the Maldives due to its geographical formation. The Atoll of Vaavu Atoll also known as Felidu Atoll is the least populated in the Maldives and over the years remained naturally pristine offering superb diving and snorkeling.

Diving in Vaavu Atoll is fantastic for large pelagic fish life as the atoll have the most numerous channels in the Maldives archipelago which ensures lots of amazing dive sites.

The island of Velifushi is located conveniently at the best possible position in the atoll which is in the middle of the eastern barrier ensuring access to all the best dives sites in the atoll from the north and south in a relatively short time.
